"Approaching, do not come with your palms stretched flat nor with fingers separated. But making your left hand a seat for your right, and hollowing your palm, receive the Body of Christ, responding Amen. And having with care hallowed your eyes by the touch of the Holy Body, take it, vigilant lest you drop any of it."

~ Cyril, Bishop of Jerusalem, Doctor of the Church, Saint; on the proper technique for receiving the Holy Eucharist in the hand (circa A.D. 347).

Fr. Gallagher is the author of several books on the spiritual teaching of St. Ignatius of Loyola and currently holds the St. Ignatius Chair for Spiritual Formation at St. John Vianney Theological Seminary in Denver, Colorado. This is a seminar for all who wish to "find God" more often and more deeply in the midst of daily busyness. It supplies the practical "how to" of living Ignatius' discernment in daily life.

Epiphany Means Manifestation

by Fr. James Doran, OMV

Epiphany means manifestation of God's love for us. This manifestation got the attention of these magi who lived a thousand miles away.

Who were these magi? Scripture scholars say they came from Persia — modern-day Iraq and Iran. A large church was built in Bethlehem in the 4th century. A fresco depicted the Magi as Persians. That was fortunate since in 614 AD, the Persians invaded Palestine and destroyed every Christian church except this one because it had the fresco of Magi dressed as Persians.

They were seekers of wisdom; they want to know the truth. They think about important things. Pope Benedict wrote they were on the lookout for the true star of salvation. They were not just astronomers. They were wise men, searching for God, they loved wisdom. Not just intellectual knowledge but they sought to understand it in its fullness. They sought the Creator of creation. They represent the religions and science moving toward Christ.

Pope Benedict says that in a way they are successors of Abraham who set off on a journey in response to God's call. They are like Socrates who questioned above and beyond conventional religion toward a higher truth.

St. Matthew does not say how many there were but three have been represented in art because three gifts were mentioned. They have often been portrayed as African, Asian and European to represent all peoples; in the kingdom of Christ there are no distinctions of race and origin. In Him and through Him, humanity is united, yet without losing any of the richness of variety.

Some artists have portrayed them as representing the phases of human life - youth, maturity and old age. Each stage of life finds its true meaning walking close to Jesus.

The key point is this: the wise men from the East are a new beginning. They represent the journeying of humanity toward Christ. They initiate a procession that continues throughout history. Benedict says they represent the inner yearning of the human spirit, the dynamism of religious and human reason toward Him.

God the Father announced the birth of His Son by this sign in the sky. People were used to looking at the sky; the stars were easier to see. It caused them great joy. When they found him they fell down and worshiped the Child as divine.

The gifts are not practical as the Holy Family would need at the moment but they reflect three aspects of the mystery of Christ; gold for a King, incense for God and myrrh points to the Passion. After the Crucifixion, Nicodemus brought myrrh, among other ointments, for the anointing of His Body.

What does this feast do for us? It gives us reason to worship God with joy. It helps us to realize how very blessed we are. I do not have to buy a camel and leave my homeland, risk my life to find the true King, Son of God. His star is right there by the Tabernacle. Instead of gold, frankincense and myrrh, He receives my prayers, sacrifices and work; my life.

The Magi found Him with Mary His Mother and so do we. She is the Star of the New Evangelization.

Oblates of the Virgin Mary – USA

Fr. Bruno Lanteri (1759-1830)

The Founder of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary.

Declared “Venerable” - the first step to Sainthood.

The Oblates of the Virgin Mary is an international religious community of priests and brothers serving in Italy, France, Austria, Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Nigeria, the United States and the Philippines. The Oblates are involved in retreat and parish missions, spiritual direction, parish work, the mass media, clergy formation, and the foreign missions.

The US Province of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary is dedicated to St. Ignatius of Loyola, and includes communities in Massachusetts, Illinois, Colorado, California and the Philippines.

The OMV US Province House is at St. Clement’s in Boston.

The OMV motto,
 “*MARIAM COGITA,
 MARIAM INVOCA*” “*THINK OF MARY,
 CALL ON MARY*”
 is taken from a homily
 by
 St. Bernard.
