*Spiritual thoughts from Venerable Bruno Lanteri,
Founder of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary*

I, by myself, am able to do nothing good, but I am able to do everything in God Who is so thoughtful about my salvation, that He never fails with His grace.

Celebrate 100 Years Under Our Lady's Mantle

Join Fr. Dave, OMV and Fr. Jeremy, OMV on a pilgrimage to Fatima, Spain and Lourdes! This unique trip includes visits to the birthplace of St. Anthony of Padua, the Eucharistic Miracle in Santarém, and the Capelinha in Fatima where our Lady appeared five times. We celebrate Mass there and enjoy a candle-lit rosary procession. We visit the birthplace and convent of St. Teresa of Avila in Spain and Loyola, home of St. Ignatius. We enjoy a breathtaking passage over the Pyrenees as we journey to Lourdes, where we visit St. Bernadette's home, bathe in healing waters and have time at leisure. Join our pilgrimage in honor of Our Lady!

“And Jesus wept”.

Isn't ironic that the One who said, “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in Me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die”, should weep?

Simeon was right when he told our Lady “this Child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, He will be a sign of contradiction”.

He is God, and so the author of life and yet He is man so He weeps.

This Gospel reminds me always of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Jesus appeared to a nun named Margaret Mary (17th cen.) and with His Heart exposed. Encircled with thorns because of our sins yet on fire with love for humanity.

Why? He wanted to remind us that He is human and divine. A divine person with a divine nature and a human nature. He did suffer all the pain that we feel. He knew what it was like to be rejected, to suffer insults, to feel abandoned, to lose a friend. He wept.

Why did he allow his friend to die? Why didn't He go to him as soon as Lazarus' sisters sent word, saying “Master, the one you love is ill?”

Jesus gives the answer when He says, “This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God”. He told Martha, “Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?”. Martha did believe and she saw the glory of God.

She believed in Jesus. She didn't know what He was going to do, but she believed in Him. That has to be your attitude. God has the best plan.
