Divine Mercy Sunday Reflection

by Fr. James Doran, OMV

St. John says; “God is love” and Jesus says: “ I Am Mercy”.

Jesus is the Incarnation of Mercy. Mercy is Love’s second name, writes Pope St. John Paul!

What is mercy? Love that seeks to alleviate suffering. That’s a good definition if you just think about it.

Divine Mercy, in the person of Jesus, gives us two commandments: First, contemplate Mercy. Look at the image and reflect how God has been merciful to humanity in general. How has He sought to alleviate suffering in your life, in your personal history.

Second, Jesus commands us to be merciful. Practice works of mercy daily. If you keep that in mind, you will find plenty of opportunities.
