Reflection

*And indeed there will be time
For the yellow smoke that slides along the street,
Rubbing its back upon the window-panes;
There will be time, there will be time
To prepare a face to meet the faces that you meet;
There will be time to murder and create,
And time for all the works and days of hands
That lift and drop a question on your plate;
Time for you and time for me,
And time yet for a hundred indecisions,
And for a hundred visions and revisions,
Before the taking of a toast and tea.*

In the room the women come and go Talking of Michelangelo.

(From The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock, T.S. Eliot)

T.S. Eliot's poem about Alfred Prufrock speaks of a man who has sent his life living passively, with little to motivate him out of the constant indecision that has marked his existence. Prufrock speaks of how "there will be time, there will be time." This is a man who knows he has not truly lived, for he is always considering but never acting. That "yellow smoke that slides along the street" reflects the vague and murky nature of a modern life in the city, a life without a guiding purpose. Prufrock contrasts his own life with Michelangelo, the man of the Renaissance, who lived passionately, with purpose. His painting of the Last Judgment on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel presents a world that is not meaningless and filled with yellow smoke. Michelangelo's world is one teeming with life, love, beauty and meaning because at the center of it is Christ, with whom is our ultimate face-to-face meeting for which we must prepare with decisiveness.

We embark now upon Advent, the season of hope and new beginnings. Advent is a time that re-infuses our lives with purpose and meaning. We are to take this time to find our passion for Jesus Christ again. His passion for us is assured in that the Son of God emptied himself to become Emmanuel, God-with-us. Jesus urges us to beware that we not become drowsy as Prufrock has become. Hope is given to us in Advent to find our purpose again in Christ and to prepare to encounter him, in our neighbors, in our prayers, in the Eucharist. The time to decide is now.

Prayer Before Mass

by Ven. Bruno Lanteri

My God, I offer you this holy sacrifice to proclaim, honor and glorify your infinite greatness, and in recognition of the supreme dominion which, as the first principle and last end, you have above all created things. I give you this homage for all those who still do not know you or do not want to recognize you.

I offer this too in thanksgiving for the benefits that I and all the world have received and will receive from your infinite goodness; in satisfaction for my sins and those of the whole world; to implore the graces that are necessary for my eternal salvation and for all mankind. Oh, my God, I offer to you the merits of Jesus Christ; grant me at this Holy Mass a profound adoration of him.

My God, my Creator, I implore you to grant me the grace of final perseverance. I know by faith that I do not deserve it, nor can I deserve it, but your Divine Son deserves it for me with all his virtues and with all the wounds he shows you in his Most Holy Body, on behalf of my wounded love. Amen.

Litany for Advent

Lord Jesus, you are the light of the world.
Come, Lord Jesus.

You are light in our darkness.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Son of God, save us from our sins.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Son of Mary, deepen our love.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Bring hope into the lives of all people.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Give your peace to all nations.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Be the joy of all who love you.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Bring unity among all who believe in you.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Bless us as we gather here in your name.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Lord Jesus, stay with us always.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Let us pray:

May Christ give us his peace and joy,
and let us share them with others.
All peace and glory are his for ever.

Amen.

The Blessing of the Advent Wreath for Home

All make the sign of the cross as the leader says:

Our help is in the name of the Lord.
Response (R/.) Who made heaven and earth.

Then the Scripture, Isaiah 9: (lines 1-2 and 5-6) or Isaiah 63 (lines 16-17 & 19) or Isaiah 64 (lines 2-7) is read:

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
R/. Thanks be to God.

With hands joined, the leader says:

Lord our God,
we praise you for your Son, Jesus
Christ:
he is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples,
he is the wisdom that teaches and guides us,
he is the Savior of every nation.
Lord God,
let your blessing come upon us
as we light the candles of this wreath.
May the wreath and its light
be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation.
May he come quickly and not delay.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
R/. Amen.

The blessing may conclude with a verse from
"O Come, O Come, Emmanuel":

O come, desire of nations, bind
in one the hearts of humankind;
bid ev'ry sad division cease
and be thyself our Prince of peace.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.
