Reflection by Fr. Michael Warren, OMV

In the end we know Jesus was abandoned by his disciples. Two in particular fell further than the others. While the name of Judas forever stands as synonymous with betrayal, the name of Peter stands through the ages as the rock of the Church's faith. Both men failed the Lord in his hour. How is it that one could stand in infamy and the other become the first pope?

In the Gospel of John we first hear of a traitor in chapter 6. Jesus has just revealed that his body is true food and his blood true drink. His disciples begin to murmur about this teaching on the Eucharist. It is revealed then that Jesus knew there were some who did not believe and that there was one who would betray him. After this, many of his original disciples leave him. Turning to his twelve apostles Jesus asks them if they also wish to leave. Peter replies, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life" (John 6:68).

In Shakespeare's play Cymbeline, Imogen, the daughter of the king of Britain, secretly marries Posthumus, a member of the royal court. The king is angry about this secret wedding, so he banishes Posthumus. Before they part, the couple exchange a ring and a bracelet to symbolize their love and fidelity to one another. Banished to Rome, Posthumus meets a man named Iachimo and boasts to him of his wife's chastity and fidelity. Iachimo wagers that he can travel to Britain and entice Imogen to betray her vows and that he shall bring back to Rome proof that he has done so. Posthumus foolishly agrees to the wager.

Iachimo utterly fails in his attempt to entice Imogen, who remains faithful, but through treachery he steals the bracelet Posthumus gave to her as a symbol of their union. When Iachimo returns to Rome with the bracelet, Posthumus believes that Imogen has been unfaithful and flies into a rage, even plotting to kill her. The prideful Posthumus so easily forgets the virtue of Imogen and her vows to him. Instead, he accepts the words of a scoundrel simply because Iachimo shows him the bracelet. Rather than trust his experience of life with Imogen, who has always proved true, Posthumus has placed his trust in appearances. All of his attention and faith is in the appearance of the bracelet, not in the substance of Imogen's vows or her character.

Judas trusted more in appearances. Peter held on to the words of Christ and trusted that what he received at the Last Supper was the gift of Jesus' body and blood sacrificed for him and for you. In faith Peter held on tightly to the words of Jesus even when everything around him seemed to collapse. Peter was solidified by the Blessed Sacrament.

Prayer Before Mass

by Ven. Bruno Lanteri

My God, I offer you this holy sacrifice to proclaim, honor and glorify your infinite greatness, and in recognition of the supreme dominion which, as the first principle and last end, you have above all created things. I give you this homage for all those who still do not know you or do not want to recognize you.

I offer this too in thanksgiving for the benefits that I and all the world have received and will receive from your infinite goodness; in satisfaction for my sins and those of the whole world; to implore the graces that are necessary for my eternal salvation and for all mankind. Oh, my God, I offer to you the merits of Jesus Christ; grant me at this Holy Mass a profound adoration of him.

My God, my Creator, I implore you to grant me the grace of final perseverance. I know by faith that I do not deserve it, nor can I deserve it, but your Divine Son deserves it for me with all his virtues and with all the wounds he shows you in his Most Holy Body, on behalf of my wounded love. Amen.

The Solemnity of Saints. Peter and Paul—June 29

A Prayer for the Roman Pontiff

V. Let us pray for our Pontiff, Pope Francis.

R. The Lord preserve him, and give him life, and make him to be blessed upon the earth, and deliver him not up to the will of his enemies (Roman Breviary).

Our Father. Hail Mary.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, have mercy upon Thy servant, Francis, our Supreme Pontiff, and direct him, according to Thy loving-kindness, in the way of eternal salvation; that, of thy gift, he may ever desire that which is pleasing unto thee and may accomplish it with all his might. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Saints Peter and Paul

Prayer for the Church

by Pope Saint Leo the Great (5th Century)

O God, you who have established the foundations of your Church upon the holy mountains: Grant that she may not be moved by any wiles of error which would fain compass her overthrow, nor may she be shaken by any earthly disquietude, but ever stand firmly upon the ordinances of the Apostles, and by their help, be kept in safety. Amen.

Novena Prayer to Saints Peter and Paul

O holy Apostles, Peter and Paul, I choose you this day and forever to be my special patrons and advocates; you, Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles, because you are the Rock upon which Almighty God has built His Church; you, Saint Paul, because you were fore-chosen by God as the Vessel of election and the Preacher of truth in the whole world.

Obtain for me, I pray you, lively faith, firm hope, and burning love; complete detachment from myself, contempt of the world, patience in adversity, humility in prosperity, attention in prayer, purity of heart, a right intention in all my works, diligence in fulfilling the duties of my state of life, constancy in my resolutions, resignation to the will of God and perseverance in the grace of God even unto death; that so, by means of your intercession and your glorious merits, I may be able to overcome the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and may be made worthy to appear before the chief and eternal Shepherd of souls, Jesus Christ, Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost lives and reigns for endless ages, to enjoy His presence and love Him forever. Amen.

Our Father
Hail Mary
Glory be

V. You shall make them princes over all the earth.

R. They shall be mindful of Your name, O Lord.

Concluding Prayer

O God, Whose right hand raised up blessed Peter, when he walked upon the water and began to sink, and thrice delivered his fellow-Apostle Paul from the depths of the sea, when he suffered shipwreck: graciously hear us and grant, by the merits of them both, that we also may attain unto everlasting glory: Who lives and reigns world without end. Amen
